

Darla Z to sing at Newton concert

From Staff and Wire Reports

NEWKIRK — Darla Z will appear with Wayne Newton in concert at First Council Casino in Newkirk at 7 tonight.

Now living in Oklahoma City, she graduated from Stillwater High School and is a singer-songwriter and author of "The Cat Detectives" children's book series. She is published under the name Darla Zuhdi.

Darla Z began her musical career by opening in concert for country music superstar Willie Nelson. She has appeared three times at Sam's Town in Las Vegas, sharing the stage with Steve Lawrence on Aug. 7.

Newton has been a resident sensation in Las Vegas for decades, performing more than 30,000 solo shows there and earning the nickname "Mr. Las Vegas."

Newton also has headlined around the world and has recorded hits including "Danke Schoen."

Tickets for the concert are available by phone at (800) 511-1552 or online at zooamp.com or tickets.com.
