

Oklahoma's Darla Z To Appear With Wayne Newton on Aug. 15

Darla Z will appear with Wayne Newton in concert at First Council Casino in Newkirk on Friday, Aug. 15, at 8 p.m.

Darla Z, now living in Oklahoma City, is from Stillwater, and is a singer/songwriter and published author of the children's Cat Detectives series, and writes under the name Darla Zahdi. Singer Buddy Greco of the Sinatra Rat Pack days wrote about Darla Z, "I love to hear her sing."

Oklahoma's own Darla Z began her music career by opening in concert for country music legend Willie Nelson. Since opening for Willie Nelson, Darla Z has appeared twice at Sam's Town in Las Vegas, Nev. Darla Z will be making her third appearance at Sam's Town, Las Vegas, on Aug. 7.

Wayne Newton is a legend in which music fans are well acquainted. He performed over 30,000 solo shows in Las Vegas over a period of over 40 years, earning him the nickname Mr. Las Vegas. Wayne Newton has also headlined all over the world and has recorded a string of mega hits, including his blockbuster "Danke Schoen."

Tickets for the concert are on sale now and are available by phone at 800-511-1552 or online at zooamp.com or tickets.com.
