As promised, catBOX delivered the best
Main Event in PROFESSIONAL BOXING Oklahoma has ever seen!

The results...
November 12, 2009, at Remington Park

In what could only be described as another spectacular sold-out catBOX event, catBOX fighters Noah Zuhdi and Eric Fields were in top form November 12, 2009, at Remington Park when they both knocked out their opponents.

In the co-main event, undefeated Oklahoma Lightweight Champ Zuhdi knocked out Robert Flaherty 1:49 minutes into the second round with a devastating lead left hook. In besting Flaherty, Zuhdi has expanded his record to 9-0, all by knockout.

Cruiserweight Eric Fields then got into the ring to fight Adam Harris in the main event. Harris came to fight, but it was clear Fields won each round before the fourth when he knocked Harris down with a body shot. Second later, Fields knocked him down again and the fight was stopped. Fields is now 13-1 (11 KOs).

Other fights on the card...

Super middleweight Delray Raines defeated David Robinson by TKO 2:50 minutes into the second round.

Ron "the Iceman" Aubrey KO'd Marcus Brown in round one.

Mitchell Raines beat Travis Hoffman by TKO in round one.
